

Bob is happy.
He has got a mobile phone.

Now he can call people.
He calls Dad.

“Hello.
I want to try
my new mobile.
How are you?”
Bob says.

Then he talks with Dad.

Dad is glad that Bob calls him.

Bob also wants to send an SMS.
But not to Dad.

Then who shall he write?
And what can he write?

Bob thinks a lot about it.
He can only write
a few words.
